Mr. Montgomery, of the "Franklin juse," Ports mouth, has our thanks for late Cincinnati 'Daily, ) papers.

Daily Mail to Portsmouth. The fact of our having a daily train of Cars, to and from Portsmouth, suggests ing your truly invaluable medicine to our minds the plausibility of having a Daily Mail to and from this place, to that. The business of our town demands it, and we hope there will be a move made in the matter by our citizens.

Editors in Town.

On the day of Celebration, we had the extreme pleasure of welcoming to our town, Mr. L. S. Bort, Sen. editor of the "Mc Arthur Republican;" Mr. A. Vance, Sen. editor of the "Gallia Courier," Gal-Drake, of the "Scioto Valley Republican," Portsmouth; and N. P. Parker, Esq., of the "Life Boat," Portsmouth. May you all live to a good old age, and when you do die go to the place where all good-

New Steam Mill in Operation.

The Messrs. Bunn, Walterhouse & Bunn egy to state, have now, their large Steam Flouring Mill in full and successful operation. The flour made by this establishment, is equal to any made in the State. We have given their flour a fair trial and pronounce it good. Their engine is fifteen horse power, with a run of three pair of stone.

That Comet.

On Sunday evening last, a blazing star or comet, made its appearance in the Western horizon. Its appearance on first sight was somewhat indistinct, but continues to grow brighter and brighter, each successive night. Its length in the distance, is about five feet. We have seen no account of it as yet, but hope soon to give a full and authentic detail of its origin and denomination.

The Free Raitroad Bide. We have been requested by Mr. C. A M. Damarin, Superintendent of the S. & H. V. Railroad, to say to the citizens of Jackson county, and others, that the failure to obtain a Free Ride, which had been promised them to come off on the 18th, the day for celebrating the first arrival of the cars into Jackson, was owing to several circumstances, which could not have well been guarded against at the time, the principal of which, was, that there was not a sufficient quantity of wood and water aboard, to run but a short distance and back, and then to run with the regular train to the wood station on return home-trip, to Portsmouth, in the afternoon The excitement at the time, and the large numbers which crowded about the care, rendered it, in the opinion of the engineer, as dangerous to life and limb, to make the attempt to start the cars at that time. To in These, together with other causes, which can be explained to the satisfaction of any reasonable man, rendered it impossible to give the ride on that day.

PREE RIDE ON THE CARS!
